GREAT FALLS STUDENT SELECTED FOR YOUTH EXCHANGE PROGRAM

MISSOULA -

University of Montana junior Robert Cahill of Great Falls is one of only 75 students from the United States who chosen to participate in the 2009-10 Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange for Young Professionals.

The academic exchange program promotes mutual understanding between the United States and Germany.

Cahill majors in international business and minors in German and economics at UM. He currently serves as an intern for U.S. Sen. Max Baucus.

In July, he will join other exchange program participants in Washington, D.C. The group will fly to Germany for intensive language training for two months. They will then enroll at a German university for five months of study and complete an internship in Germany in their individual fields. The program will conclude with a seminar in New York City.

Cahill is a 2006 graduate of Great Falls High School and the son of Jan and Angela Cahill of Great Falls.
